

Click on any of the headlines to go to the story:

- Empowerment through the arts: how one creative company is helping workers in China
- Don't write Dubai off just yet
- Laid off foreign workers flee as Dubai spirals down
- Rush to India, PwC tells global companies
- Cloud Computing occupies centre stage
- Japan's crisis of the mind
- Africa n 2009: The ones to watch amidst the global crisis special report

Welcome to Global Glance. Our editorial team will be happy to hear from you with suggestions for items to include in future issues. Please contact global_glance@gsb.strath.ac.uk

Source: Insead Knowledge
Country: China

Empowerment through the arts: how one creative company is helping workers in China to develop their skills

Hua Dan, a non-profit organization based in China can possibly re-define how not-for-profit organizations are managed.

Read full text

Source: Khaleej Times
Country: United Arab Emirates

Don't write off Dubai just yet

Dubai in its twilight: A myth?

Read full text

Source: New York Times
Country: United States of America

Laid-off foreign workers flee as Dubai spirals down

Dubai, the city with the highest GDP growth is not resilient to the force of the economic slowdown. Is there any city on the earth, post globalisation, that is recession proof?

Read full text

Source: The Deccan Herald

Country: India

Rush to India, PwC tells global companies

Every country passes through the phase of infrastructure revolution and now its time for India. PwC urges global companies to identify the brewing opportunities.

Read full text

Source: The Hindu

Country: India

Cloud computing occupies centre stage

The role of mobile phones is dynamically changing every day. Mobile phones are now set to become the platform for hosting various applications in "cloud computing" the next generation Internet Paradigm.

Read full text

Source: New York Times

Country: United States of America

Japan's crisis of the mind

Japan has no doubt come full circle after the end of World War II. Having successfully built an economy that is second only to the US, a somewhat noticeable decline has started to set in that is largely due to the Japanese psychological mindset embedded during the post-war era. This article essentially captures the inherent contradiction prevalent in the Japanese society.

Read full text

Source: Business Monitor Online Database

Africa in 2009: The ones to watch amidst the global crisis special report

Business Monitor International (BMI) has published a special report which assesses the impact of the global economic crisis on sub-Saharan African creditworthiness , economic growth and political risk in 2009 and beyond.

Read full text by assessing the Business Monitor Online Database (via the intranet) and click on Africa.

